

GIVES REASON FOR SELECTING THIS CITY

PAPER OWNED BY PRESIDENT OF BOARD HAS BIG STORY.

GIVES DETAILS OF WORK

Institution Will Be Modelled After the Famous German Institution.

The Belville News-Democrat, owned by Hon. Fred J. Kern, president of the board of administration, has the following to say of Dixon securing the new state epileptic colony, and its article may be considered as coming from the board, and therefore reflecting its opinion of Dixon and Dixon's site for the new institution:

The cities visited by the board included Freeport, Rockford, Belvidere, Crystal Lake, Carey, Lake Villa, Dixon, Rochelle, Streator and Winona.

Rockford alone presented eight different sites to the board for its inspection and consideration. Belvidere presented two. Freeport presented two.

The Dixon site received the preference because of its proximity to the romantic and attractive Rock river, its charming scenic beauty and the great fertility of the soil.

It comprises between 1000 and 1100 acres of land, and the beautiful Rock river forms a perfect semicircle around the tract, with lofty and picturesque bluffs rising at a steep incline from the banks on the opposite side of the river.

About 750 acres of the land is rich bluff land, all under cultivation while the remainder is either very fertile bottom land, tillable and not subject to overflow, or timber groves. The price at which the land will be bought will average $200 an acre.

The timber grove covers gently sloping hillsides which rise from the bottoms to the top of the bluffs. There is an excellent limestone quarry on the site and directly across on the opposite bank of Rock river is a large cement mill operating in full blast.

The site selected adjoins the Dixon Military School campus and the Dixon Chautauqua grounds, and is only a quarter of a mile distant from the city limits.

The city of Dixon is located on the Rock river. It is the county seat of Lee county. It is rated as one of the prettiest of the smaller cities of Illinois.

It has a population of 8,000 people.

The manufacturing industries of Dixon include beside the cement mill, a large agricultural implement works, creameries and malted milk bottling works.

The city of Dixon is located on the intersection of the Illinois Central and Chicago & Northwestern railroads.

The Illinois Central main line runs through the middle of the proposed site for an epileptic colony. Dixon is a handsome and very desirable residence city.

The leading churches and lodges are all represented there.

The Elks' hall is a new structure and is one of the finest Elks' club buildings in the state of Illinois.

Before the deal is finally closed the board of administration demands that railroad switching arrangements, including satisfactory terms on matters pertaining to rates be completed; that a contract be closed with the local street car company to extend its lines to the front entrance of the institution and that permission be given the board of administration to bore a test well 1800 feet in depth and extending into the St. Peter sandstone, and to pump this well for a period of ten days to ascertain its capacity and reliability.

These precautions are taken to avoid misunderstandings now in evidence at the proposed Alton institution for the insane.

At the city waterworks of Dixon St. Peter sandstone wells produce a constant flow of absolutely pure and very splendid water.

Talk of Water.

The board of administration estimates that it would be a matter of

MANY SUCCESSFUL BOYCYCLE WINNERS

HUNDREDS OF DIXON KIDS ARE ELIGIBLE FOR DANDY MACHINES.

Hundreds of Dixon boys and girls have won Boycycles, and many more are out trying and all will succeed if they keep at it, for the terms are easy and the prizes big.

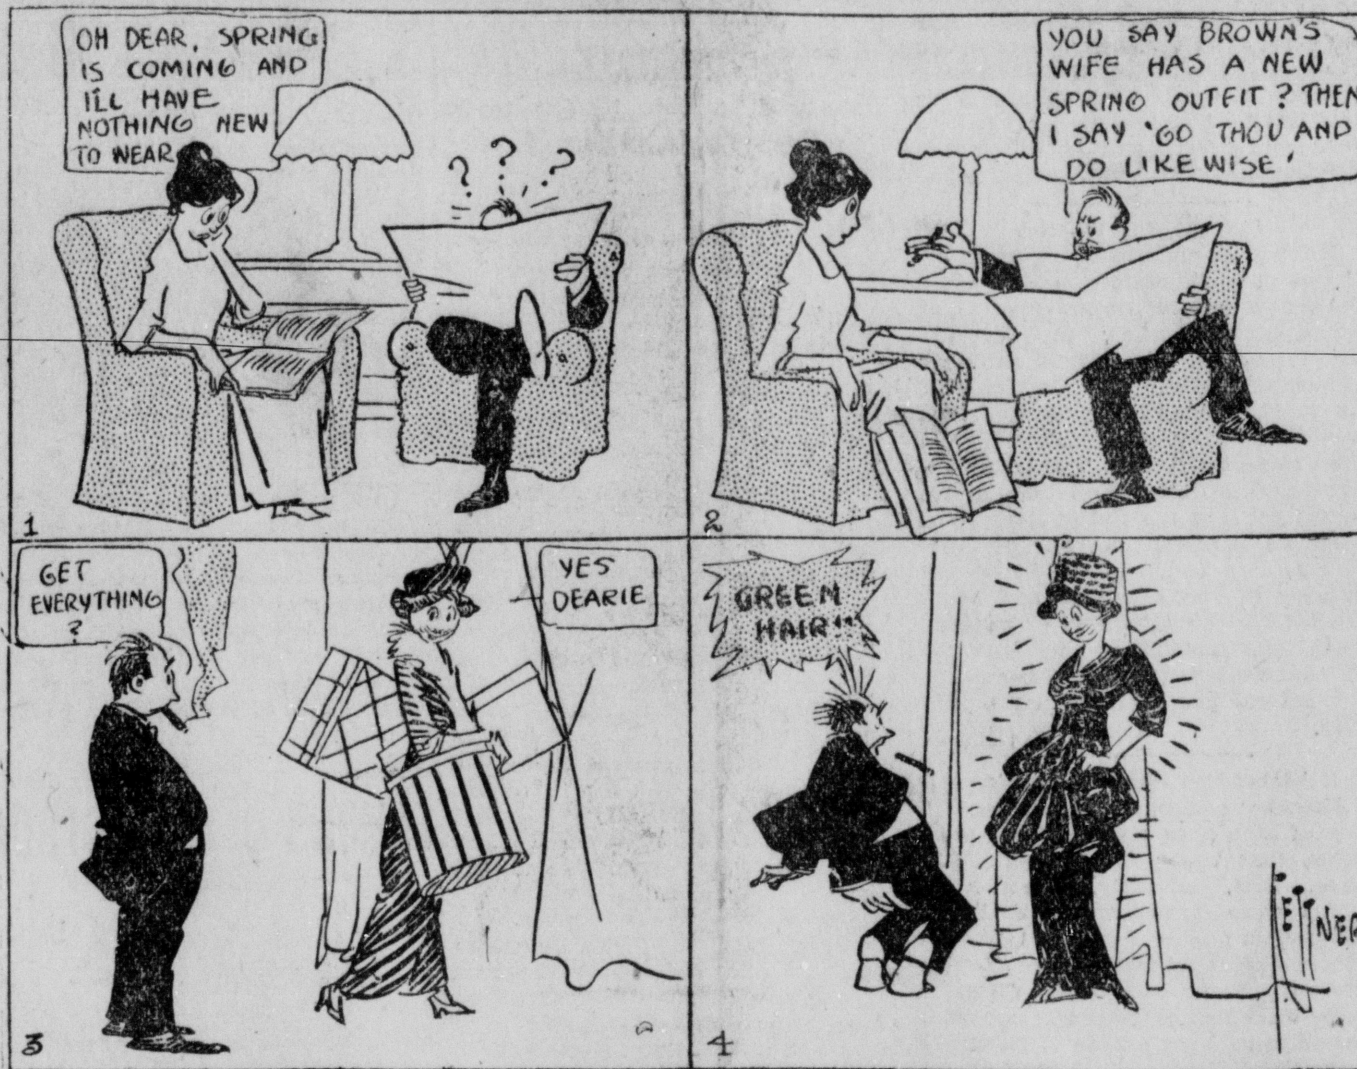

A delay in the shipment of Boycycles has caused some inconvenience, as the kids are naturally anxious to get them. One shipment came by express Friday noon but they went like hot cakes. We expected a load today but they did not arrive and we are now telling the boys to come Monday afternoon after school.

If the boys can wait they will be better off, because there are plenty of machines ordered for every boy in town and there is a factory full of them where we buy them, so none will be left that has won a prize.

The snow on the walks makes it impossible to use the machines now. When they arrive they will be new and bright. We want to warn all subscribers that they must sign but one card, as if they sign more they are storing up disappointment for the little man or woman who presents it.

We will announce in the paper when the Boycycles come and the winners may come in and get them. There are enough for all and every boy and girl can have one.

BUT ONE HONOR MAN UNFAITHFUL

"CAMP HOPE" WORKERS HAVE RETURNED TO PRISON—THE WORK WAS A SUCCESS.

(By The Associated Press)
Joliet, Feb. 7.—Only one of the 52 convicts who were sent to Camp Hope, the "honor camp" at Grand Detour, to work on the roads, was false to the trust. This was learned today when the men returned to the penitentiary. This man attempted to smuggle a flask of whisky into his tent and was sent back to prison at the time.

Dixon.—The men completed their excellent work yesterday and quietly passed through Dixon to the Northwestern station, where they boarded the train. The experiment under Illinois' new convict labor laws was a decided success.

FOIL ATTEMPT TO STEAL LADY'S CASH

MRS. ELIZABETH TURNER MISSED
$100 AT BAZAR LAST EVENING.

The attempted theft of $100 in currency from Mrs. Elizabeth Turner at the Mystic Workers' bazar at Rosbrook hall last evening was foiled by the discovery by Mrs. Turner that her money was missing and a thorough search, in which the police assisted, and which resulted in the recovery of the money. Mrs. Turner had left her purse in her muff, and later had remembered it and on going for it discovered it had been taken. After half an hour's search the bills were found hidden in various parts of the ladies' rest room.

MOOSE HEART HOME BURNED LAST NIGHT

FRAME BUILDING OWNED BY LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE
BURNS AT AURORA.

(By The Associated Press)
Aurora, Ill., Feb. 7.—The frame building owned by the Loyal Order of Moose, located at Moose Heart, near this city, was destroyed by fire last night.

Fifty little children, orphan wards of the order, slept undisturbed during the fire in another building not more than ten rods distant, while the firemen worked to extinguish the blaze. The loss is $10,000.

SAYS DIXON CAN HAVE BUT TWO ASSISTANTS

ATTORNEY GENERAL P. J. LUCEY GIVES OPINION ON LOCAL SUPERVISORS.

Which of the Three Has No Right to the Office Remains Unsettled.

States Attorney Harry Edwards has received from Attorney General P. J. Lucey and has turned over to Town Clerk F. D. Palmer an opinion on the legality of the election of Assistant Supervisor J. M. McCleary and Dixon township's right to assistant supervisors on the board.

It will be remembered that a short time ago it was discovered that Dixon township's population had dropped in 1910 to less than 9000, which number is necessary, under the statutes, for three assistant supervisors. At that time, also, it was questioned which of the three—Messrs. McCleary, Self and Burkett—had no right to the office they were holding, and accordingly the question was submitted to the attorney general of the state.

Can Have But Two.

The attorney general holds that Dixon has right to but two assistant supervisors, but declines to render an opinion on which of the three has no right in office. He maintains that Mr. McCleary was regularly elected in 1911 and 1913 and that his right to office is not a question for the decision of the legal department of the state, but should be decided by some court of record in quo warrant proceedings.

Following the opinion of Mr. Lucey, but one assistant supervisor will be elected in this township this spring, at which time the terms of Luther Burkett and Charles Self expire.

RE-INVESTIGATE NEW HAVEN

(By The Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 7.—The Norris resolution directing the interstate commerce commission to continue its investigation of the New Haven railway affair, was passed today. The commission was given full power to decide if the previous investigation developed all the facts.

DEATH TOOK THEIR ONLY DAUGHTER

LITTLE BETH M'GINNIS PASSED AWAY AT MIDNIGHT HOUR.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGinnis, 619 N. Dixon Ave., at midnight last night, and cast two fond parents into deep sorrow, when their only child, Beth Olive, was taken from them. The little one succumbed to pneumonia which developed after a surgical operation a short time ago in which one of her ribs was removed.

Beth, who was born in Palmyra March 30, 1905, was an exceptionally bright and happy child, and her passing will leave an unfillable void in the hearts of her parents, whose bereavement will bring forth the sincere condolence of a host of friends. The funeral will be held at the home Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and at the Evangelical church at 2 o'clock, Rev. George Smith officiating.

LAW BEFORE ELECTION.

(By The Associated Press)

Chicago, Feb. 7.—The Illinois woman's suffrage test case is called for appearance before the Illinois supreme court for Friday. It is hoped the decision may be secured before the spring elections in this state. A decision coming after the election might cause a great deal of confusion.

SALOONS AN ISSUE IN FIVE TOWNSHIPS

PETITIONS FILED IN DIXON, AMBOY, SUBLETTE, HARMON AND BROOKLYN.

SIX CITIES AND VILLAGES

Peculiar Situation Exists in Village of Lee, in Willow Creek Township.

The wet and dry question will be an issue in five townships in Lee county at the annual town elections, which will be held Tuesday, April 7, petitions having been filed in Dixon, Amboy, Sublette, Harmon and Brooklyn. As a result the saloons of six cities and villages are in jeopardy, as West Brooklyn and Compton, both of which are in Brooklyn township, have saloons. Petitions bearing signatures as follows have been filed in these townships.

	Total	Men	Women
Dixon	1172	372	800
Amboy	130	130
Sublette	125	60	65
Harmon	59	59
Brooklyn	89	89

A peculiar situation exists in the village of Lee, part of which is in Willow Creek township, Lee county, and part in Shabbona, DeKalb county. A local option petition has been filed in Shabbona township and the status of the entire village will be determined by the vote as the present trustees are dry. No petition has been filed in Wyoming, in which is situated in the village of Pawpaw.

SPECIAL LINCOLN SERVICES SUNDAY

MARTYRED PRESIDENT TO BE COMMEMORATED AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Special services commemorating the life of Abraham Lincoln will be held at the Congregational church tomorrow at 7 p. m., which will be attended by all the patriotic societies of the city, the invitations of the pastor, Rev. Stebbins, having been accepted. The Life of Lincoln will be illustrated with stereopticon and special music will mark the service.

LADIES WILL HOLD BAZAR AND SOCIAL

AUXILIARY OF Y. M. C. A. TO ENTERTAIN TUESDAY AFTERNOON AND EVE.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will hold a bazar and cafeteria supper at the association building on Tuesday afternoon and evening and it is expected it will be one of the feature events of the social season at the Y. A very interesting program is being arranged and music will be a feature throughout the evening, while an art gallery, fortune teller and various other attractions have been secured to amuse the patrons.

The ladies are making an effort to redeem a pledge to raise $750 for the association work, which pledge was made last summer, and it is hoped that next Tuesday will be a red letter day for them.

FINED $5 AND COSTS.
Lee Robinson, an employe at the cement works, was fined $5 and costs by Magistrate Kent for assault and battery, the complainant being Alfred Holm, an engineer at the plant, who stated that Robinson had kicked him in the face as he was alighting from the company's motor bus.

CAUGHEY WINS CASE.

The jury in the case of Caughey vs. the National Life Insurance Co. returned a verdict for the plaintiff and awarding him $450, the amount of a policy carried by the late Robert Caughey in the company.

A SMALL BABY.

A baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boos of Oregon weighed but one and a half pounds.

Rules, Records, Rewards.

1. No pupils are obliged to enroll for credits for this home work. All are asked to join, but none are compelled to do so.

2. Any pupil entering for this work is free to quit at any time.

3. On Mondays of each week pupils will file with the teacher an itemized list of the work done and credits earned for the week before. This list must be signed by the parent or guardian, but should be made out by the pupil.

4. At the close of each school month the teacher will enter on the pupil's report card under head of "Home Work" the number of credits earned by the pupil for the past month.

5. Credit may be given for work done on Saturday or Sunday, but no credits will be given after the school has stopped school.

6. A pupil who is absent and cannot present an excuse from his parent will lose 10 credits; an unexcused tardiness will count off 5 points; a grade in deportment less than 75 per cent for the month, 10 credits off.

7. As soon as a pupil earns 500 credits he will receive a nicely engraved certificate from the County Superintendent. When he earns a total of 5,000 credits, he will receive a larger and nicer certificate.

8. All pupils doing this work will have added to their final grades for the year, one per cent for each 200 credits they have earned. The total per cent that may be added, however, is limited to 5 per cent for the year.

To Measure Coal in the Bin.

A solid cubic foot of anthracite coal weighs about ninety-three pounds. When broken for use it weighs about fifty-four pounds. Bituminous coal, when broken up for use, weighs about fifty pounds. The consequent rule for the approximate measurement of coal in a bin or box is to multiply the length in feet by the height in feet and again by the breadth in feet, and this result by 54 for anthracite coal, or by 50 for bituminous coal. The result will equal the number of pounds, and to find the number of tons, divide by 2,000.

Mine Worth Owning.

Mutations among mines are not uncommon. Many that began as producers of one kind of ore have in the course of time turned into another kind. The Highland Boy mine of Bingham, Utah, is a recent and striking example. It began as a gold mine, in which class it was of no great account. Then it became a rich and profitable copper mine, its performances as such making it famous. It is no longer much good as a copper mine, but lately it has become a first-class lead mine.—Mining Journal.

Vanderbilt Pearls Famous.

But the pearls of the Duchess of Marlborough are even more interesting, the finest of them having been the property of two famous queens, one of them the ill-fated Marie Antoinette. The French Queen's pearls were purchased by W. K. Vanderbilt and presented to his daughter as a wedding gift. They include a necklace each pearl in which is valued at $5,000, and there is one rope which the Duchess can twist five times around her neck and which even then falls well below her waist.

"O, Girls," Don't have sore puffed-up, sweaty, calloused feet or corns—Just try "TIZ."

"TIZ" makes my feet just dance."

Ah, what relief! No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just try "TIZ."

"TIZ" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "TIZ" is magical; "TIZ" is grand; "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. Think of it, no more foot misery; no more burning corns, callouses or bunions. Get a 25 cent box at any drug store or department store, and get instant relief. Get a whole year's foot relief for only 25 cents. Think of it!

MEXICO CITY COUP NIPPED IN BUD

Troops of Entire Garrison Held in Quarters—Palace Guard Increased.

BANDITS TAKE 7 YANKEES

Rumored That American Railroad Men Were Locked in Coaches and Burned to Death by Outlaws.

Mexico City, Feb. 7.—The report that conspirators planned a coup d'etat last night resulted in troops of the entire garrison being held in quarters or placed on guard in the neighborhood of the artillery barracks. Soldiers are on top of some of the buildings, from which a few families had been advised to move. The garrison at one of the suburban towns attempted to revolt and fighting is reported at Guadalupe.

The guard at the palace was increased and soldiers slept in the court yard.

General Blanquet, minister of war, and the post commander and other officers were in conference, but denied the meeting was due to any plot.

To Set River on Fire.

Vera Cruz, Feb. 7.—Rebels are concentrating a force for an immediate attack on Tampico, says a wireless dispatch from Clarence A. Miller, United States consul at Tampico. They have planned to burn the tanks of the five foreign oil companies and turn the blazing streams into the river, with the purpose of destroying any Mexican gunboats guarding approaches to the city.

Seven Americans Captives.

Juarez, Feb. 7.—Seven American railroad men are believed to be prisoners, the great Combre railroad tunnel through the continental divide is in ruins and a Mexican Northwestern passenger train that left Juarez Wednesday is a charred wreck at the mouth of the tunnel. All this is the result of the depredations of members of the Castillo band of bandits. The prisoners are reported to be: M. J. Gilman, superintendent of the road, H. Schofield, superintendent of terminals at Juarez, Lee Williams, assistant manager of the railroad commissary, E. J. McCutcheon, engineer of the passenger train, J. E. Webster, conductor, H. F. Mardees, express agent.

Posses Seek the Robbers.

Aroused to anger by the capture of American railroad officials and trainmen, posses are being formed in the Guerrero district to assist Villa's rebels in running down the bandits. One posse is reported to consist of cowboys from the Hearst ranch. From Madera comes a rumor that when the passenger train was sent crashing into the burning tunnel the passengers, including the Americans, were locked inside the cars and perished. Railroad officials doubt the rumor.

Frees Arms for Rebels.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Immediate release of all munitions of war under seizure in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, except those needed as evidence against violators of the neutrality laws, was ordered by the department of justice. The arms will be delivered to the constitutionalists.

Ready to Attack Torreon.

Culiacan, Sinaloa, Feb. 7.—General Carranza was advised that all was ready for General Villa's attack on Torreon.

London, Feb. 7.—The Globe considers President Wilson's position impracticable and says: "The expedient of sanctioning and supporting civil war in a neighboring state is a declaration of war in a form which can hardly be reconciled with the comity of nations."

'SLAVER' GIVEN THREE YEARS

Chicagoan Convicted of Transporting Girl for Immoral Purposes.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 7.—Arthur R. Carey, thirty-eight years old, of Chicago, was sentenced to three years at Fort Leavenworth prison for violation of the Mann white slave act. Laura Flecker, eighteen years old, of Green Bay, Wis., was the girl whom Carey was convicted of transporting to Minneapolis, Minn., for immoral purposes. Federal Judge F. A. Geiger said that the case brought to light the most flagrant violation of the law since its enactment, but out of sympathy for the wife and three children of the convicted man, now living in Chicago, he gave only a light sentence. Chicago officials were also after Carey on a similar charge.

Chicago Jewelry Firm Fails.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—H. F. Hahn & Co., one of the oldest wholesale jewelry houses in Chicago, was placed in the hands of a receiver by Federal Judge Carpenter. An involuntary petition in bankruptcy had been filed by Merwin M. Hart, attorney. The liabilities of the concern are said to amount to $475,000, while the assets are in excess of $500,000.

Eight Dead in Big Fire.

Bombay, Feb. 7.—More than 100 men were trapped in the upper story of a confectionery store in the bazaar when fire broke out in the lower floor. Eight are known to have perished, and more than a score are missing.

Ready to Attack Torreon.

Culiacan, Sinaloa, Feb. 7.—General Carranza was advised that all was ready for General Villa's attack on Torreon.

London, Feb. 7.—The Globe considers President Wilson's position impracticable and says: "The expedient of sanctioning and supporting civil war in a neighboring state is a declaration of war in a form which can hardly be reconciled with the comity of nations."

'SLAVER' GIVEN THREE YEARS

Chicagoan Convicted of Transporting Girl for Immoral Purposes.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 7.—Arthur R. Carey, thirty-eight years old, of Chicago, was sentenced to three years at Fort Leavenworth prison for violation of the Mann white slave act. Laura Flecker, eighteen years old, of Green Bay, Wis., was the girl whom Carey was convicted of transporting to Minneapolis, Minn., for immoral purposes. Federal Judge F. A. Geiger said that the case brought to light the most flagrant violation of the law since its enactment, but out of sympathy for the wife and three children of the convicted man, now living in Chicago, he gave only a light sentence. Chicago officials were also after Carey on a similar charge.

Chicago Jewelry Firm Fails.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—H. F. Hahn & Co., one of the oldest wholesale jewelry houses in Chicago, was placed in the hands of a receiver by Federal Judge Carpenter. An involuntary petition in bankruptcy had been filed by Merwin M. Hart, attorney. The liabilities of the concern are said to amount to $475,000, while the assets are in excess of $500,000.

Eight Dead in Big Fire.

Bombay, Feb. 7.—More than 100 men were trapped in the upper story of a confectionery store in the bazaar when fire broke out in the lower floor. Eight are known to have perished, and more than a score are missing.

DUNCAN M'DONALD

This is the Illinois member of the Western Federation of Miners who in the convention of that body accused President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor to his face of being a "booby-fighter" and said the miners had suffered in their strikes because of the drinking habits of the chief officers of the American Federation.

FAVORS U. S. CONTROL

Head of N. Y. Central Urges Supervision of Stock.

Alfred H. Smith Also Says Steel Cars and Other Improvements Strengthen Railroads.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 7.—Alfred H. Smith, president of the New York Central lines, addressing the Engineering Society of Western Pennsylvania at its annual dinner here, expressed the highest confidence in government commissions for railroad regulation. He said in part: "It appears most probable and proper that the government, through its commissions, shall pass upon the outlays made by railroads in providing facilities for the service of the public as a sound basis on which to compute rates and to yield a fair return to investors."

"It has been stated the railroads carry one ton of high-class freight three miles for the value of a two-cent postage stamp, and one ton of dead freight four miles for one cent. Not all of them are making money at these rates. Some of them are getting thin and emaciated."

"The strength and efficiency of sound railroads lie in heavy steel rails, good ballast, steel cars, modern signal systems and other appurtenances that constitute a safe transportation machine, whose efficiency is proved by paying the highest wages for services rendered by its employees and furnishing transportation at the lowest cost."

"This is a simple problem. Those who complicate it only hide the truth. In the commissions the people have provided a means of searching out the facts in order to do justice. The railroads have hope and confidence in these bodies, which, by their efforts to learn and speak the whole truth, are bound to perpetuate and enhance the confidence of the people in the great properties."

TO TOUR SOUTH AMERICA

Illinois Manufacturers Seek to Extend Market.

New York, Feb. 7.—Edward N. Hurley, vice-president of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, and 50 manufacturers from the middle west, who will sail for South America on the steamer Vanhan, arrived here from Chicago. Their trip will be the biggest commercial expedition in Latin America that has ever left this port on one ship. Mr. Hurley said the delegation was as keenly interested in ascertaining what may be bought in South America as it was in extending the markets for products of the United States. As important objects of the journey is to investigate banking and credits for the government. Mr. Hurley has been asked by Secretary Redfield to report to the department of commerce on his return.

CHICKEN TRUST MEN JAILED

Thirteen Given Severe Penalty by High Court.

New York, Feb. 7.—Thirteen members of the "chicken trust," the New York Live Poultry Dealers' association, convicted of restraining trade in New York city, must go to jail. Their appeal was denied by the appellate court and their sentences of three months in prison and fines of $500 each were sustained. The case was prosecuted under the state anti-monopoly law.

St. Cloud Has $150,000 Fire.

St. Cloud, Minn., Feb. 7.—Fire destroyed the Leisen block, containing a clothing store, a billiard hall, and several law offices. The loss was $150,000.

SOME ADVANTAGES OF SALT

Professor Babcock of Wisconsin Makes Experiments Which Are of Much Interest.

Some experiments conducted by Professor Babcock, the inventor of the milk tester, in Wisconsin, regarding the giving and withholding of salt to cows, are of interest to dairy farmers. He found that if salt were absolutely withheld the effect would be seen with some cows in from two to three weeks; but some individuals went on for the most part of a year without any evil effects, but sooner or later the animal developed a state of low vitality, ending in a sudden and complete breakdown, though recovery would be rapid when salt was again given.

The effect was worst shown at calving time, or immediately after. In general, cows given the largest amount of milk were the first to show signs of distress, while there was less trouble when the animals were on the pasture than when in the cowshed. Dry cows suffered very little, and the same applies to bullock and store cattle, the salt naturally in the food or in the "earthlicks" of animals out in the fields being nearly sufficient for them.

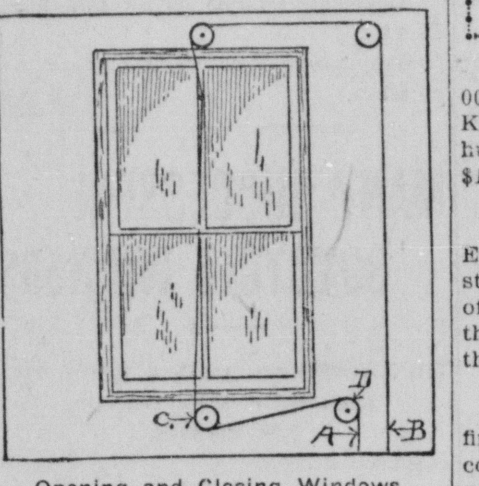

In an ordinary daily ration there is about three-quarters of an ounce of salt, and this is nearly, but not quite, sufficient for dry stock per head, but not enough for a milk cow. The milk drains away a lot of salt out of the system, and an additional ounce per head daily must be added to the food of a cow indoors. Many years ago the French government carried out some experiments to test the amount of salt required by the different kinds of farm stock, and reckoned a milk cow required a total of two ounces daily; this corresponds with Babcock's figure, allowing for differences in the size of different breeds.

It is therefore safe to say that a milk cow requires about an ounce of salt daily when in milk, besides what she gets in her food. When out of doors the best way is to let her have access to rock salt to lick; but indoors it must be given in the food in the ordinary granular form.

HOW TO OPEN HIGH WINDOWS

Simple Method Illustrated for Operation From Floor—Four Pulley Wheels Are Used.

In dairy barns and other buildings windows are placed high up in the gables, and they are always closed, or always open, because they are hard to reach, at the same time it is very necessary that they be opened and closed at times, to protect or ventilate the building. By a very simple method they may be operated from the ground, or from the lower floor on the inside. Four small pulley wheels are fastened to the wall and threaded with a small window cord, the cord is fastened to the sash near the top, just below the top left-hand pulley. By pulling on one rope the window is lowered, by pulling on a second rope the window is raised. If there are no openings below the window, such as a door, the two top pulleys only will be required. By having both ropes stretched tight, the window may be held at any point, and opened and closed in short order if a shower should come up.

Opening and Closing Windows.

FIVE MINUTE CURE IF STOMACH IS BAD

"Pape's Diapiesin," is quickest, surest, indigestion cure known

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs. Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble have made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach, all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

TENNIS

American Lawn Tennis association emphasizes the fact that players desiring rating must send in their ratings, and that only scores made in at least three approved tournaments, not inter-club or intercity, will be accepted.

It is practically assured that seven or eight countries will try to win the Davis cup, emblematic of the world's lawn tennis championship, from this country next year. Until March, the date for challenging, the exact challenges will not be known.

BILLIARDS

Calvin Demarest of Chicago ran away from Charles Peterson in the last block of their four game match at St. Louis. Demarest cleaned up a block of 400 points. Demarest averaged 23-9-17, while Peterson averaged 12-4.

Morris D. Cline believes that the United States will be the scene of a big amateur international 18.2 balkline billiard tournament before the winter is over. He only recently returned from Europe, where he aroused the interest of foreign talent in the proposition.

GOLF

It is estimated that nearly $30,000,000 is spent on golf in the United Kingdom every year, and that of this huge sum a little less than half, or $12,500,000 goes to the caddies.

Henry Vardon and Edward Ray, English golfers, defeated Robert Johnston of Seattle and James M. Barnes of Tacoma, 1 up, in a four hundred thirty-six hole match on the links of the Seattle Golf club.

When Maurice Risley won the semi-finals at Atlantic City, his home course, Tillinghast, the Philadelphia golf expert, took occasion to point out that knowledge of the home links is worth many strokes in such a competition. The player knows what clubs are required for every distance where the stranger does not. This was undoubtedly true in the case of Outmet at Brookline, too.

Attorney C. H. Wooster of Amboy was here Friday.

A LiverRite Tablet in Time Will Prevent Serious Illness

You can trace most intestinal troubles to an inactive liver. Constipation is one of the first symptoms; and soon grows to be one of the worst disorders that beset the human family. At the first sign take

They stir into action the suppressed secretions, and nature does the rest. You'll never suffer with constipation or any form of liver trouble if you keep them handy and take one now and then as you need them.

For Y. M. C. A. Boys.
Next Saturday night the first of a series of socials for the boys and intermediates of the Y. M. C. A. will be given at the association building at which time a chicken supper will be served and music and speeches will form amusement for the younger members.

Elks' Dance.
An informal dancing party for Elks and members of their families over 16 will be given at the club rooms Wednesday evening, Feb. 11. The party will be a Valentine event and refreshments will be served, the music to be furnished by the Marquette orchestra.

Phidian Art Club.
The Phidian Art club will meet with Mrs. M. H. Vail Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. The paper on "Valasquez and Murillo," will be by Mrs. Kehr of Sterling. A piano solo by Miss Katherine Stebbins and a vocal number by Mrs. Sickels accompanied by Miss Rogers will also be on the program.

Entertained Friday
Messdames Fordham, LieVan and Bennett entertained about thirty ladies in a most delightful manner yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. LieVan on Peoria avenue.

This was one of the meetings of the civic wheel idea which the ladies of the W. C. T. U. are using in the interest of the anti-saloon campaign, each lady of the union inviting 10 ladies who are not already members of that society. The afternoon was spent in a social way; a short musical program and an interesting discussion of political affairs were enjoyed, after which light refreshments were served.

Guests of Mrs. Murphy
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gabler of Princeton are visiting at the home of Mrs. Dennis Murphy.

Current Topics Club.
The members of the Current Topics club will meet Monday with Miss Lillian Snyder at her home on Gale-nal avenue in the afternoon.

Freshmen Party
The Freshmen of the North Dixon High school enjoyed a class party last evening at the home of Miss Dora Smith, one of their number at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith. A very pleasant evening is reported by all.

Dinner and Theatre Party
Miss Lulu Gorham entertained a number of friends last evening with a three course dinner, and afterwards with a theatre party in honor of her birthday anniversary. The decorations which were very pretty, were red and white.

After the dinner Miss Gorham entertained her guests with a theatre party at the opera house. There were twelve guests and the two young ladies from out of town were Misses Edith and Emma Emmitt of Sterling.

Farewell Party
Last Wednesday evening about 50 neighbors and friends of Mr. J. Mrs. Adam Elsenberg gathered at the home of Oliver Elsenberg to give them a farewell before going to their new home in Ashton. In behalf of the friends assembled, Charles Wagner presented them with a handsome punch bowl and a dozen sherbet cups. Later in the evening a two-course supper was served, after which the guests enjoyed themselves until a late hour, and departing, left best wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Elsenberg in their new home.

Birthday Party
Miss Leota Rice charmingly entertained a number of young ladies last evening at her home on Third street, in honor of her 14th birthday anniversary. Fourteen were present. The house was most attractively decorated in valentine style, red hearts, red crepe paper and red carnations being used.

The evening was enjoyably spent in games and music. The guests left many pretty gifts with their young hostess and wished her many happy birthdays.

Butterbaugh-Gilbert
Tri-County Press:— At high noon on Wednesday, Jan. 28, Rev. Wm. Lampin of this city pronounced the words that made Orpha Elizabeth Gilbert and Harvey E. Butterbaugh man and wife. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gilbert, south of this city. Promptly at high noon to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Verna Detweiler, sister of the bride, the wedding procession, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert followed by the officiating clergyman, who in turn followed by the bride and groom entered the parlor and the contracting parties assumed their places beneath an arch of ferns and carnations resting on pillars of smilax. Immediately above hung three wedding bells of red and white. The color scheme of red and white, which were carried throughout the decorations are the colors of the Bible Students class of which the bride is a very prominent member. The aisle through which the wedding procession passed was of six little ribbon bearers dressed in red. The bride's dress was of white batiste trimmed in white satin and lace while the groom wore the conventional black.

Following the ceremony and the hearty congratulations of friends the wedding party sat down to a three course dinner which was served by six cousins of the bride, dressed in white and who were assisted by Clarence Parks and Arthur and John Scholl.

The bride and groom left for Chicago on a short wedding tour, and will be at home after March first at the J. C. Lampin farm one and one-half miles southeast of Waterloo.

In Rochelle.
Misses Myrtle Rice and Wilhelmina Seyfarth and Mrs. Godfrey visited in Rochelle last evening.

Tremonti to Be Here.
The hospital benefit concert to be given by the celebrated harpist, Tremonti, of the Thomas orchestra, assisted by Mrs. Douglas Harvey and Miss Lucile Reynolds, is to be given February 25th, at the Dixon opera house.

The addition to the hospital is nearing completion and in a short time the board will be able to set a time for Hospital day, which will be a public reception and an opportunity to inspect the splendid new building. Several public spirited citizens have already reserved rooms to furnish, namely: Misses Nonie and Edna Rosbrook, Dr. E. A. Sickels, A. C. Bardwell, E. W. Smith and daughters and Dr. E. S. Murphy. Several other physicians will unite in furnishing a room, Dixon nurses will furnish one. The rooms are all light and pleasant, and with magnificent views over river from most of them.

An isolation room on the first floor will be furnished completely for the purpose of caring for cases of contagious disease which break out in the hospital. One ward on the third floor will be a maternity ward. The heatless light in the operating room will be a great advantage over the old style of light. The board elected the following officers at the January meeting:

President—Mrs. D. E. Raymond.
Vice President—Mrs. Ed. Cahill.
Secretary—Mrs. W. A. Schuler.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. C. Warner.
President of the Nurses Training School—Mrs. Theo. Fuller.
Miss Mary Burns of Vermont has been made assistant to Miss Collins superintendent.

Bazar Will Close.
The Mystic Workers' bazar, which has been exceptionally successful, will close this evening and as a result the largest attendance of the week may be expected. The crowd was large last evening and was very happy, the prize waltz being won by Elmer Grant and lady. The Marquette orchestra will furnish music for the dancing this evening.

Entertains Girls.
Mrs. W. C. Stauffer is entertaining her Sunday school class of little girls this afternoon.

ABOLISH INSPECTION BOARD.
(By The Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 7.—The board of food and drug inspectors of the department of agriculture has been abolished by Secretary Houston. It is stated that his action was in the interest of economy and efficiency.

LINCOLN WAY TO BE EMBLAZONED

BAND OF WHITE ON EVERY POLE
ALONG LINE THROUGH THIS CITY.

If the plans of the local promoters of the Lincoln highway movement are carried out, and present indications are that they will be, the route through this city will be emblazoned so that every tourist will have no trouble in following it. It is planned to mark every telephone, electric light and trolley pole along the route in the city with a band of white of uniform width and height from the ground. The permission of the telephone company has been obtained, and it is contemplated that no serious objection will be met when the matter is taken up with the officials of the Utilities company.

HOERNER WON CASE FROM ELEVATOR CO.

WAS ALLOWED 35 CENTS PER BUSHEL FOR OATS HE DELIVERED.

Frank Hoerner was awarded 35 cents per bushel for 2100 bushels of oats which he sold to the West Brooklyn Elevator company by the jury which heard the suit in the circuit court Friday afternoon. The company claimed that Hoerner agreed to deliver 3000 bushels of the grain to their elevator and that the price of 35 cents was on that condition. The issues in the Capp vs. Weidman suit were found for the defendant by the jury which heard the case. This morning Judge Heard excused the petit jurors for the term, and Monday at 1:30 p. m. the sixth and seventh weeks' will report.

REPORTED REVOLT DID NOT OCCUR

MEXICAN AUTHORITIES GUARDED PALACE, ARSENAL AND BARRACKS.

(By The Associated Press)
Mexico City, Feb. 7.—The capital was quiet today, although the authorities said they feared conspirators against the administration would attempt an uprising. No outbreak occurred and troops guarded the palace, arsenal and artillery barracks during the night. It was reported that conspirators had planned a revolt against the Huerta government.

A report that an outbreak had actually occurred last night at Guadalupe, a suburb of Mexico City, proved unfounded. It had been rumored that 2500 police of the capital city were involved in the plot and had pledged themselves to revolt with certain troops Feb. 9.

BERNARD SCHULER SUCCEEDS
While in Los Angeles during his recent tour of the west and the Orient, Gordon Utley encountered Bernard Schuler, formerly of this city, and he speaks highly of the success the former Dixon man is making in the west. Mr. Schuler is in the contracting business and has over 100 men working for him.

HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER

ACCUSED BY OSBORNE
(By The Associated Press)
New York, Feb. 7.—"Millions of dollars have been wasted by the state highway commission through its alliance with politicians and contractors," said James Osborne, Gov. Glynn's graft investigator today. Osborne will recommend taking the state highway commission out of politics.

CAUGHT RICH SPEEDER.

SHOT WIFE OF AFFINITY.

(By The Associated Press)
Newark, N. J., Feb. 7.—Haza Herdman, age 20, shot and killed Mrs. Charles Manning, wife of a man with whom she is infatuated. Miss Herdman is dying in the Montclair hospital of poison self administered.

NO SEGREGATION.

(By The Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 7.—President Wilson has signed the Kenyon bill to abolish the segregated district of Washington.

Turkey Dinner Sunday.

Turkey dinner will be served at the Dixon Inn Sunday, 12:30 to 2 o'clock.

MRS. BRINTON VERY ILL.

Mrs. W. B. Brinton, wife of the mayor, is seriously ill at her home in North Dixon. A Chicago specialist was called today to consult with Dixon physicians who are caring for her. Miss Brinton and Bradford Brinton, who were in Chicago, and making preparations for their mother's visit in the south next week, also came home today. Latest word from the physicians in attendance say Mrs. Brinton's condition is not as alarming as at first supposed.

TEACHERS AT PAWPAW.

The teachers of the public schools of Pawpaw and vicinity held a profitable meeting there today and as a result a permanent organization will be formed to plan future events.

AMBOY DEFEATED.

The Amboy high school basketball team spent the morning here enroute home from Morrison where they were defeated last evening, 35 to 23.

NECKWEAR WITH COAT SUIT

Not Everyone Cares for or Can Wear the V Shape Arrangement With Day Gowns.

The neck arrangement of evening gowns is less puzzling than any other because it is either square or V-shaped and, beyond folds or tulle, there is little to guess about. Probably the neck arrangement for the morning hours in the street is more puzzling than ever, for the open neck is universally fashionable and yet many women for many reasons will not wear it on the street in connection with a rough coat suit. And they are right. All the modern shirt waists have wide turn over collars that expose most of the neck, and a woman must either adopt these with a net guimpe or pull them outside the coat collar, leaving the neck and chest exposed.

Not all coat suits look well in conjunction with a white net guimpe. For this reason it is the best form of dressing to wear a high collar of muslin attached to the shirt waist, or a black satin stock with white muslin turn-over at the top. There has come about a strong inclination for a manish variety of heavy white silk shirt waist with a stitched yoke, long sleeves with turnover cuffs and collar to match under which is run a colored cravat. It is the form of shirt waist worn for sports in the open, and as many women have an athletic appearance, they are glad to find an arrangement for the neck that is not only becoming but suitable for a coat suit severely made.

MOST PRETTY HOME COSTUME

Model Especially Adapted for Fine Serge or Tweed—Worn With Smart Little Vest.

For fine serge or tweed, our model is just the thing. The skirt has a panel front terminating in a wide box-pleat; a wrapped seam is taken down center of back; little pieces of striped silk trim below waist in front. The vest is also of stripe, with revers of satin, turning from it; the collar is of satin edged with a narrow mignon frill; wider frills finish the wrists. Materials required: 4 yards 44 inches wide, ½ yard yard silk 22 inches wide, ½ yard satin 22 inches wide.

Baggy Top Coats.

The top coat is more baggy and shapeless than ever, and the closer the woman who goes in for sporty effects follows the lines of the men's coats the more satisfactory will be her garment. She will rival her masculine neighbor in the number of patch pockets, however, for they seem to pop out everywhere. The collar should be arranged to fasten closely to the throat, and the sleeves should strap tightly to the wrist if necessary. English melton in a striped effect is a new material, which is considered very chic for the top coat, and it comes in all the lighter colorings and other English looking combinations of color.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

A MIGHTY GOOD IDEA.

The following letter written to the Telegraph contains a suggestion that would be a fitting tribute to the man who secured the epileptic colony for Dixon:

Dixon, Ill., Feb. 6, 1914.

Editor of the Telegraph:

To the rank and file of us who were outside the effort to secure the epileptic colony the success seems only natural because we know the fitnessness of our offer and nothing of the allurement of other cities in the contest. As a matter of fact the visit of the commission to Dixon was not at all effective and we cannot credit the results to the visit.

The plain cold facts are that without the efforts of Colonel Brinton we would not have secured the institution. His long years in politics, his wide acquaintance with influential men, his keen knowledge of how to secure and use their influence and above all, the fact that his whole life record was such that the governor, the members of the commission and the influential friends knew that when he detailed the worthy features of our offer he was not painting a rosy picture, but giving them absolutely truthful facts and from his statements only were conclusions reached.

Dixon has secured the prize state institution which will employ one thousand or more people to care for the ten thousand patients (ultimately), not for a time but for generations to come. A group of stately, handsome buildings surrounded by a beautiful park of twelve hundred acres, equal in population to Dixon of today.

Mr. Brinton's expenses for various trips and entertainments, essential to the success of his efforts, were not nominal; these he assumes himself and will not permit us to participate in. By way of retaliation I would suggest that you initiate a city-wide petition to the Illinois Central Railway company to name the station, to be placed on the institution grounds, "BRINTON," that the name may go down to posterity along with the institution he has so untiringly worked to secure.

Yours sincerely,
J. P. PLUMMER.

COLD WAVE GRIPS THE ENTIRE COUNTRY

FROSTY WEATHER TO REMAIN
OVER SUNDAY, HAS A WIDE RANGE.

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Cold weather is sweeping eastward and spreading a frosty blanket over the Ohio valley and upper lake region today and the lowest temperature of the year is promised. The cold wave will reach the Atlantic coast and the lower lake regions tonight and will continue over Sunday. Zero weather moving eastward, is promised for the Missouri valley.

STREET SIGNS NEEDED IN DIXON.

A condition that has been brought to the attention of the Telegraph is one that should be corrected this spring by the city commission. Dixon streets are sadly lacking in the matter of guiding name signs. We are away behind many smaller cities in this particular. Every corner in the city of Dixon should be graced by a neat, permanent sign that gives the names of both streets that intersect.

In Morrison, the progressive little city in Whiteside county, every single corner in the town is marked by a metal sign, supported by a small iron post, neatly painted and the signs point two ways, with the names of the various streets in raised metal figures.

Dixon is a city that is growing rapidly and is fast becoming filled with strangers, who are utterly lost when they attempt to find an address, for the reason that there are no street signs to guide them. Even old residents have great trouble finding a number in a section of the city with which they are unfamiliar. This is a condition that should not be permitted to exist in as large and in other ways progressive city as Dixon. At present there are, very few street corners supplied with signs. Those of us who may know the city well do not notice their absence, but it is a great inconvenience to persons not so fortunate.

ONE WAY TO BOOST THE TOWN.

If your front walk, Mr. Man, is still cluttered up with snow tonight, you had better get your sweeper on and put your shovel to work, so that the light of another day will not disclose to your neighbors your thoughtlessness and lack of civic pride.

Epileptic colonies, shoe factories and fine buildings are not all that is needed to make Dixon the most desirable city in the state to live in.
Every resident has to do his or her share. They have duties to perform that no others will do for them, unless they are willing to pay for it, and every patriotic resident will perform those duties to the best of his ability. He will keep his own premises in the best of condition. He will keep the snow from his walks, and if he is especially interested, he will keep the snow from the walk along the vacant lot next to him.

A WAY TO HELP DIXON AND YOURSELF.

Wideawake Dixon is beginning to feel pretty plainly the strangulation of lack of homes and there is talk among business men of forming house building companies that will erect houses wholesale and relieve the situation. The idea is certainly right, and the Telegraph hopes the plans of the prospective investors materialize.

One excellent way of alleviating this condition which might be termed a "dead sure bet," is co-operation with an institution that has been one of the greatest factors in Dixon's prosperity, the Dixon Building and Loan association. The local association, like others over the land, is not run for the profit of the officers, but solely for the profit of the members. It is on a mutual plan, and the investors are the ones who get the benefits. They pay their money in each month, and the money is loaned to those who want to build. It is only loaned on faultless security. For each share of stock taken out, the investor pays fifty cents a month in, and at the end of ten or eleven years his stock is matured and he draws out $100 for each share taken.

The Dixon Loan and Building association has more applications for loans that it can make. It needs more members to pay in each month so that it will have more money to loan, and it follows that if it had more money to loan for house building, more homes would be built in Dixon. Dixon will certainly stand still in the matter of increased population until we have places to house those who may wish to come here. We can't ask prospective Dixonites to live in the parks or camp on the court house lawn, and the quicker we tumble to the fact that we must provide homes for those we wish to bring here, that much sooner will we be in position to keep them here when they come. The wise manager anticipates, instead of trusting to luck and help from above to be able to cope with conditions when they face him.

Lack of homes here may result in retardation of progress that will take years to overcome and such shortsightedness would be a shame.
This is a problem that must be dealt with with promptness and direct-ness, for the present conditions can-not be relieved in a day or a month.
Any solution that will bring about the desired results will be gratefully accepted by Dixon, but it must come soon to be of most value.

Medical Reform

By WALT MASON

More and more the learned physicians turn away from dope and drugs, turn away from old positions, from the bottles, flasks and jugs. When I used to have convulsions, measles, mumps or other ills, Doc would hand me out prescriptions calling for a peck of pills. He would straightway send me bedward, with a trained nurse stern and dour, saying to the latter, "Edward, give him dope eight times an hour." AM my bedroom was a litter of old bottles, goblets, spoons, and I swallowed powders bitter till I felt like last year's prunes. It was not till I revolted that I rallied from my ills, not until I up and bolted and went hiding in the hills. Now the doc writes no prescriptions when I've left my health behind, naught in Latin or Egyptian for the druggist to unwind. "You must live," the doc says, "sanely if you'd keep away from grief; men of careless habits vainly look to druggists for relief. Eat good grub and eat it slowly, go to bed at 10 o'clock, sidestep all the drinks unholy, every morning take a walk." Then he soaks me for an eagle, and I sigh, "I am no flat! Me the sawbones can't inveigle into such a scheme as that!"

great advantage to the proposed institution to secure artesian well water for use.

The well water is considered more healthy and sanitary as well as more safe and palatable than even filtered river water.

The competition was confined to cities located within 125 miles from Chicago, in counties not now having any state institution.

The new institution will be modeled in a general way after the epileptic colony in Bielefeldt, Germany or its counterpart located in Sonyea,
N. Y.

The New York institution will be visited next week by President Kern and Dr. Zeller of the board of administration, accompanied by James Dibelka, state architect, and Archibald Bowen, secretary of the State Charities Commission of Illinois.

The purpose of the institution is to provide a colony for the care and treatment of the non-insane epileptics in Illinois.

11,000 In State.

Statistics tell us that there are in Illinois at this writing over 11,000 non-insane epileptics.

In the city of Chicago alone some 400 children affected with epilepsy are, on account of the disease, barred from attendance at both public and parochial schools.

As a consequence these children are growing up in idleness, neglect and ignorance, nearly all of them belonging to families in the poor class.

Epilepsy is one of the most dreadful and distressing diseases to which the human race has fallen heir.

Epileptics, or people having falling sickness, never know when they are going to be overcome with a seizure or convulsion and they are for that reason barred from most occupations and not even safe to go to any place of amusement or worship, or to cross the street.

Experience has proven that with proper medical care the disease can be cured, eradicated, or at least minimized.

The epilepsy colony is, however, not merely to furnish a home and hospital for the epileptics, but it is to be an industrial and educational institution at the same time.

Schools will be provided for the benefit of the juvenile inmates.

All forms of industrial education adapted to people afflicted with epilepsy will be introduced.

Self-Supporting.

The institution will be made self-supporting as near as possible.

Farming and dairying will be resorted to and other productive occupations will be adopted for the benefit of the health and diversion of the patients, as well as for economic and social reasons connected with the management of the colony or village.

All of the civilized countries in Europe have provided epileptic colonies and ten or twelve of the leading states of the Union have followed suit in this commendable endeavor.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Russell D. Byers)
But the victories of character are instant, and victories for all.—Emerson.
Monday—Prof. Anderson gave his usual talk.

Tuesday—Music.
Wednesday—Nothing doing.

Thursday—
Friday—Literary Societies met.

All the students of the North and South Dixon high schools who were interested in base ball held a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Monday afternoon from 4 to 4:30. Prof. Baldwin was chosen as temporary chairman. The following officers were elected: Paul Byers—Student Manager. Prof. C. H. Anderson—Faculty Manager.

Prof. Chas. Bocher—Treasurer. Prof. Leslie Homrich, Coach.

Speeches were given by both Mr. Byers and Prof. Bocher. It has been planned to have 3 basket ball games between the north and south side schools to raise a fund with which to purchase new uniforms for the coming season. A very good schedule is expected this season for Messrs Byers and Anderson are two good men in that line of work.

The basket ball team easily defeated the faculty in a game last Friday night at the high school gym by a score of 19 to 11. Professor Anderson, Bocher and Homrich were the stars for the faculty, while Haley, Curran and Dollahan were the stars for the students.

The Junior Bowling team very easily defeated their worthy opponents, the seniors, last Thursday at the Brunswick alleys. They were no match for the star bowlers. The juniors were victorious in three straight games. Two more contests are scheduled for the near future, after which the losing team banquets the winning team.

The members of the foot ball team had their pictures taken Monday afternoon at the Hintz studio. The picture will appear in the Dixon High School Annual. Let us all have pity on the camera which faces that awful congregation of players.

The senior class will be entertained at the Mark Herbst home in Nachusa this evening. A good time is expected by all.

The basket ball team went to Sterling Friday night to meet the fast team of that city. The second team will accompany the first team, and will play a preliminary game with Sterling's second team. A large crowd of students accompanied the team to help them win.

The literary societies met Friday afternoon. Many good programs were given by the many societies.

The debating, oration and declamatory team is preparing for a contest with Rochelle to be given in this city some time in March.

URGES JAIL FOR RAILROAD'S HEADS

If Reports Are True New Haven Deal Is Criminal, Says Borah in Senate.

FAT FEES GO TO LAWYERS

Norris Declares Body Feared to Grant Immunity to Witnesses in Quiz—Cummins Asserts There Is No Law to Punish Them.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Fear of granting immunity to witnesses caused the interstate commerce commission to make an incomplete investigation of the affairs of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, Senator Norris said in urging passage of his resolution for a new inquiry into several features not touched in the recent investigation.

Senator Norris read newspaper charges emphasizing particularly that attorneys for Morgan & Co. received $15,000 for drawing the incorporation papers of a $1,000 subsidiary of the New Haven.

Testimony from bookkeepers. "If half the information made public about the New Haven transactions is true eight or ten persons ought to be in the penitentiary," interjected Senator Borah. "Are you not afraid further investigation may give immunity to guilty persons?"

Senator Norris replied that testimony probably could be obtained from bookkeepers and he had no objection to giving them immunity.

Condition Known for Years. "I predict the state of affairs here finds a parallel in the capitalization of a dozen railroads of the country," said Senator Cummins. "We have known it was going on for years and refused to give the interstate commerce commission power to regulate such matters."

Both Senator Lodge and Senator Norris said they understood the commission had evidence it had not made public.

Prosecution Best Influence. "I think the spectacle of five or six men behind the bars would have a more powerful moral influence on the country than any legislation we can enact," Borah declared.

Senator Cummins replied there was no federal law under which the attorney general could "put any of these men behind bars," and that the attorney general could not enforce state laws, nor grant immunity from prosecution under state laws.

SECOND ROW OVER NEGRO

Vardaman Leads Attack During Agricultural Bill Debate.

Washington, Feb. 7.—During the debate in the senate over the Jones amendment to the agricultural extension bill granting to negro colleges in the south a share in the money appropriated for farm demonstration work Senator Sherman of Illinois and Senator Vardaman of Mississippi became involved in a discussion of the Springfield race riots of several years ago.

"It took 4,000 soldiers," said Senator Sherman, "to reduce society to its normal state in Springfield. When men recovered their senses it was found that no outrage was committed, but it gave our city much unpleasant notoriety. We all realize the difficulty of the negro problem. I will concede a great deal to those who are bearing this problem, but the political question involved in the race issue is one that has nothing to do with the economic question."

"I did not refer to the Springfield riots in any censorious spirit," explained Senator Vardaman, "but only to show that such incidents occur in other parts of the country than the south. In the black belt of Mississippi the white women live in a state of constant siege. They are not as safe as were the women of the western frontier when wild men and wild beasts roamed over the plains."

BIG STRIKE NEAR IN CHICAGO

Restaurant Owners Told to Unify Shops Under Penalty.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—The Chicago Federation of Labor delivered an ultimatum to members of the Restaurant Keepers' association after 11 union waitresses had been arrested while conducting their "boycott" against Henri's restaurant.

"Unify your places, or the entire strength of the federation will be turned against you," was the decree of the labor leaders. The ultimatum was given at the close of a conference at Vogelsang's restaurant, in which heads of eight unions and owners of three restaurants participated.

Convicted of Slaying Husband.

Fulton, Mo., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Susan Ross was found guilty of second degree murder and her punishment fixed at ten years in the penitentiary, for the second time. The jury was out 23 hours. Mrs. Ross was convicted of the murder of her sixty-year-old husband, J. Haywood Ross, who was found dead in bed last summer. He had been shot.

Pirates Loot Ships.

Bombay, India, Feb. 7.—Pirates in the Persian gulf have attacked and looted two Indian vessels near Bushire, killing a skipper and wounding several sailors.

FREE HAND IN MEXICO

Page Points Out to Britons Meaning of Monroe Doctrine.

Investors Welcome in America, But Must Leave the Governments in America Alone.

Newcastle, England, Feb. 7.—Walter H. Page, the American ambassador, in an address here before the Newcastle Chamber of Commerce touched upon the Monroe doctrine and the situation in Mexico.

Mr. Page said the United States desired no more territory, as it now had sufficient for a self-governing unit. The Monroe doctrine, the ambassador declared, stood for self-government. The United States desired no European government in America, because it wished to dedicate the American continent to self-government by the people who live there.

Referring to Mexico, Mr. Page said the United States could send an army into the southern republic, but that would be to establish a protectorate—that would not be self-government.

Regarding complaints that investors were losing money in Mexico, Mr. Page said nothing could be done; that dividends would not come any quicker through the sending of a United States army there.

"When men who love to fight as a pastime have been restrained for 25 years," the ambassador continued, "they must fight for four or five years before they arrive at an ordinary state of equilibrium. Therefore, if they fight long enough and get tired, why should we not some day have peace and order? I see no other way for it."

"Come to our country and invest your wealth in our enterprises and you will be heartily welcomed," he added.

DATE FOR GORE'S TRIAL SET

Suit for $50,000 Against Senator by Woman.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 7.—Trial of the suit against U. S. Senator Gore for $50,000 damages, based on the charge of Mrs. Minnie E. Bond that the senator attacked her in a hotel in Washington on March 25 last year, has been set for February 11. Mrs. Bond, who is thirty-one and attractive, swears that Gore called on her, and while he discussed her husband's application for a post of collector of internal revenue of Oklahoma City, took her hand, tried to kiss her, and seized her. In the struggle she alleges her glasses were broken and she was severely cut. Half a dozen prominent politicians in Oklahoma, three of whom are alleged to have witnessed the attack, will be called in Mrs. Bond's behalf.

MISS PANKHURST RESIGNS

Sylvia Secedes From Mother's Cause to Be Ultra-Militant Leader.

London, Feb. 7.—Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, has quit militancy. She announced her secession from the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant organization of which her mother is the head and her sister Christabel one of the leaders. Sylvia Pankhurst will hereafter confine her efforts to her work with the East End of London federation, which has heretofore been a branch of the parent organization. Because of Mrs. Pankhurst's weakened condition from her prison sentences it is feared that the shock may have a serious result.

GOETHALS TO HIRE HELP

Organization of Permanent Canal Force Intrusted to Him.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Organization of the permanent force of officials and employees to operate the Panama canal has been intrusted to Col. George W. Goethals, who becomes first governor of the canal on April 1. Under an order by President Wilson, issued at the request of Secretary Garrison, Colonel Goethals is authorized to make appointments and fix salaries, exercising his own judgment as to the force needed. The only exceptions are in the cases of the district judge, the district attorney and the clerk of the court.

FREE CONFESSED LYNCHER

Admitted He Helped Kill Man 27 Years Ago.

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 7.—Reason Trigg was released from the Monticello jail by order of the Platt county grand jury, as sufficient evidence for conviction was not obtained. Trigg recently confessed that he helped lynch Henry Wildman, wife slayer, at Monticello 27 years ago. Conscience-stricken, he gave himself to the authorities. "I am content and my conscience has been satisfied," said Trigg as he walked out of the Monticello jail. He will return to his farm.

Blackburn Succeeds Cullom.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The house passed the senate resolution appointing former Senator Joseph C. S. Blackburn of Kentucky resident commissioner of the Lincoln memorial commission at a salary of $5,000 a year to fill the vacancy caused by the death of former Senator Cullom.

Policeman Slain by Gunmen.

New York, Feb. 7.—Policeman Edward Murtha, shot under the heart by a gunman he was endeavoring to search, died. James O'Connor, a bystander, who was wounded by the gunman, is in a critical condition.

BRYAN IS LAUDED BY THE PRESIDENT

Secretary's Work, Says President, Should Enlist "Affectionate Admiration."

DEFENDS CANAL TOLL STAND

Exemption, Executive Adds, Is Mere Aid to Monopoly, and Breaks Treaty—Message to Ask Repeal of Law.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 7.—In a letter to William L. Marbury President Wilson says that the exemption of American coastwise shipping from Panama canal tolls "constitutes a very mistaken policy from every point of view" and "benefits only a monopoly." He pays a high tribute to Secretary Bryan. "Your reference to the secretary of state," says the letters, dated February 5, "shows how comprehensively you have looked on during the last few months."

Admiration for Bryan. "Not only have Mr. Bryan's character, his justice, his sincerity, his transparent integrity, his Christian principle made a deep impression upon all with whom he has dealt, but his tact in dealing with men of many sorts, his capacity for business, his mastery of the principles of each matter he has been called upon to deal with have cleared away many a difficulty and have given to the policy of the state department a definiteness and dignity that are very admirable."

"I need not say what pleasure and profit I myself have taken from close association with Mr. Bryan or how thoroughly he has seemed to all of us who are associated with him here to deserve not only our confidence but our affectionate admiration."

View on Canal Tolls. "With regard to the question of canal tolls, my opinion is very clear. The exemption constitutes a mistaken policy from every point of view. It is economically unjust; as a matter of fact, it benefits the present, at any rate, only a monopoly; and it seems to me in clear violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty."

"There is, of course, much honest difference of opinion as to the last point, as there is, no doubt, as to the others, but it is at least debatable, and if the promises we make in such matters are debatable I for one do not care to debate them."

"I think the country would prefer to let no question arise as to its wholehearted purpose to redeem its promises in the light of any reasonable construction of them rather than debate a point of honor."

To Repeal Tolls Exempter.

Washington, Feb. 7.—President Wilson is expected to send congress soon a message recommending the repeal of the Panama canal act clause exempting American coastwise vessels from payment of toll for passage through the canal.

JOHN D. LEAVES CLEVELAND

Oil Magnate Fails to List Personal Property.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 7.—John D. Rockefeller, from whom Cuyahoga county tax commissioners are trying to obtain $12,000,000 in taxes, flitted out of the city mysteriously and now is steaming on his way towards Pocantico Hills, N. Y. Why the oil king left Cleveland so hurriedly has not been explained. It was rumored that Miss Lucy Spellman, his sister-in-law, who is now at Pocantico Hills, is ill. Tax commissioners smiled when told this. They intimated that Rockefeller sought to complicate the situation by removing himself from their jurisdiction. They declare that the taxes will be collected just the same, that his leaving the city will not affect their case against him in the least.

MONEY ORDER LIKE A DRAFT

President Signs Bill That Increases Their Value.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The bill introduced by Representative Moon making postal money orders payable at any money order post office was signed by the president, and a committee was appointed by Postmaster Burleson to draft the necessary regulations. It will require several months to install the new system, but it is believed the measure will greatly increase the volume of the money order business and prove a great convenience, as it practically endows the money order with all the properties of a bank draft.

A Romance of the Panama Canal

BY REX BEACH

COPYRIGHT, 1910, 1911, BY HARPER & BROTHERS

SYNOPSIS.

Kirk Anthony, son of a rich man, with college friends, gets into a fracas in a New York resort. A detective is hurt. Jefferson Locke institutes himself into the college men's party.

Locke, aided by Kirk's friend Higgins, who thinks it a joke, drugs Kirk and puts him aboard a ship bound for Colon. Kirk is on the passenger list as Locke.

"Broke" and without baggage, aboard the ship Kirk makes the acquaintance of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cortlandt.

Kirk's father repudiates him, and Weeks casts him out as an impostor. Kirk meets Allan, a Jamaican negro canal worker out of a job. The two are arrested by Colon police for helping to put out a fire.

Kirk and Allan are treated brutally in a Colon jail by young Alfarez, commandant of police. Allan's release is obtained by the British consul, but Weeks refuses to aid Kirk. Mrs. Cortlandt gets a phone call.

Locke (real name Wellar) is a swindler and has disappeared. His description fits Kirk. The latter tries in vain in Panama to learn something of Chiquita and meets Alfarez again.

Kirk kisses Mrs. Cortlandt and is then ashamed to think he has violated Cortlandt's trust in him. Cortlandt, alarmed by his wife's absence, rescues her and Kirk from the island. In the country near Panama Kirk meets a charming Spanish girl.

Mrs. Cortlandt obtains Kirk's release by using influence with Colonel Jolson, head of the canal. The Cortlandts are intriguing to make Alfarez's father president of Panama.

Kirk's father casts him off finally, and Mrs. Cortlandt obtains for him a position on the Panama railroad under Ruennels, master of transportation.

The Cortlandts and Kirk plan a picnic on the island of Taboga, near Panama. Cortlandt is detained and his wife and Kirk are marooned on the island.

Kirk wins the capital prize, $15,000, in the lottery. He and Ruennels make plans for advancement. The Cortlandts, having turned from the older Alfarez, intend to make Senor Garavel, a banker, president of Panama.

Alfarez's son, Kirk's foe, is engaged to Gertrudis, Garavel's daughter. She is Kirk's "Chiquita." He meets her again at the opera through Mrs. Cortlandt's aid.

CHAPTER XV.

Gertrudis Garavel.

LIKE most Latin-American cities, Panama prides herself upon her government theater. Although it remains dark most of the year, its brief period of opera is celebrated by a notable outpouring of Americans and Panamanians. It was an exceedingly well dressed audience, for although the pit was plentifully sprinkled with men in white, the two lower galleries were in solid full dress. In the center box of the first tier, ornately hung with flags and a coat of arms, Anthony beheld a giant black man of majestic appearance, flanked by a half dozen aids in uniform.

"That is President Galeo," Edith told him.

As the curtain fell on the first act Kirk rose with the others and, accompanied by Mrs. Cortlandt, made his way down the long passageway and out into a brightly lighted, highly decorated foyer, filling now with voluble people. It was a splendid room, but he had no eyes for it. His gaze was fixed upon the welcome open air promenade outside, and his fingers fumbled with his cigarette case.

"Oh, wait, please," he heard Edith say. "I want you to meet some one."

There, not a yard away, was the girl of his dreams deprecatingly bowing to Edith Cortlandt, her hand upon the arm of a swarthy man, whom Kirk knew at once as her father. He felt the blood rush blindingly to his head, felt it drumming at his ears, knew that he must be staring like a man bereft. Mrs. Cortlandt was speaking, and he caught the name "Garavel" like a bugle call.

She was the same dainty, desirous maid he had met in the forest, but now splendidly radiant and perfect beyond his imagining. She was no longer the simple wood sprite, but a tiny princess in filmy white, molded by some master craftsman. As on that earlier meeting, she was thrilling with some subtle mirth which flickered on her lips or danced in the depths of her great, dark eyes.

How he ever got through that wild introductory moment without making a show of himself Anthony never knew. The general confusion perhaps helped to hide his emotion, for around them eddied a constant human tide, through which at last came Mr. Cortlandt and the other members of his party. Then by some glorious miracle Kirk found himself moving toward the open air at her side, with Mrs. Cortlandt and the banker in advance of them.

"Oh, Chiquita," he said softly. "I thought I'd never find you. I've hunted everywhere."

At the tremendous intensity of his tone she flashed him a startled glance. "Chiquita is not my name," she said, reprovingly.

"Yes, it is; it must be. I can't think of you by any other. Hasn't it been whispering at my ears ever since you said it? It has nearly driven me mad. Why didn't you come back as you promised?"

"It was Stephanie—she is such a ferocious person! I was brought to the city that day—but no, señor. I did not promise. I said only 'perhaps.'"

"Have you done your penance?" "It was finished yesterday. This is the first time I have been out. Oh, it is delightful. The music—the people!"

"And I can come to see you now?" "Very well do you know that you cannot. Have you not learned our customs? Do not be foolish, or I shall be forced to walk with my father."

"Don't do that. Can't you see we must make haste while the curtain is down?"

"I do not see. I am strolling in search of the cool air." She bowed and smiled at some passing friends. She seemed very careless, very flippant. She was not at all the impetuous, mischievous Chiquita he had met in the woods.

"See here!" he said, soberly. "We can't go on this way. Now that I've met your father, I'm going to explain my intentions to him, and ask his permission to call on you."

"My father is a stern man. In his home he is entirely a Spaniard, and if he learned how—we met, for instance—even under the electric light he saw her flush—he would create a terrible scene."

"Trust me! I shan't tell him."

"There are so many reasons why it is useless."

"Name one."

"One!" She shrugged lightly. "In the first place I care nothing for you. Is not that enough?"

"Indeed. You'll get over that."

"Let us imagine, then, the contrary. You Americans are entirely different from our people. You are cold, deliberate, wicked—your social customs are not like ours. You do not at all understand us. How then could you be interested to meet a Spanish family?"

"Why, you're half American."

"Oh, yes, although it is to be regretted. Why, there is no other nice girl in all Panama who would have talked with you as I did in the forest that day."

"But what has all this to do with my coming to see you?"

"It is difficult to explain, since you will not understand. When a young man is accepted into a Spanish house, many things are taken for granted. Besides that, we do not know each other, you and I. Also, if you should come to see me it would cause gossip, misunderstanding among my friends."

"I'll declare myself in advance," he promised warmly.

"No, no, no! We Spanish-Americans do not care for strangers. We have our own people and we are satisfied. It is much better that old people who are of more experience should discuss these questions."

"But don't you want to have a voice in your own affairs?" he eagerly urged.

She answered frankly: "I do rebel sometimes. I protest, but it is only the American blood in me."

"If you'd learn to know me a little bit, maybe you'd enjoy having me around the house."

"But I cannot know you, any more than you can know me," she cried, with a little gesture of despair at his dullness. "Don't you see—before we could get acquainted nicely people would be talking."

"Let's try. You're living at the country place again, aren't you? Suppose I should get lost some day—tomorrow, for instance?"

"No, no! Listen. It is the warning bell, and we must return."

The crowd was filing into the theater now. They fell in behind Senor Garavel and Mrs. Cortlandt.

"I'm going hunting again tomorrow," prophesied Kirk, "and I'm almost certain to lose my way—about 2 o'clock. Suppose we have another stroll after the next act?"

"I shall be with my father. Never before have I enjoyed so much liberty."

Oh, I detest your blarney, strait-laced Spanish customs," he cried hotly. "What do they amount to, anyhow? I love you. I do, I do—"

She laughed and darted to her father's side.

"Don't you think Miss Garavel is a pretty girl?" Mrs. Cortlandt questioned.

ed, as they strolled toward their box.

"She's a dream," Anthony's tone left nothing unsaid.

"You got along together capitally. Most of the señoritas are impossible."

"By the way, what is her name?"

"Gertrudis. Rather pleasing, I think."

Kirk thought so too. When, after an age, the curtain fell for a second time he escaped from his companions, mumbling some excuse or other, and made haste to find her again. But as he approached he felt a sudden pang of jealous rage.

Ramon Alfarez was beside her, and the two were chatting with an appearance of intimacy that made him furious. Close at hand stood Garavel, deep in conversation with Colonel Jolson.

"Ah, Ramon, I wish you to meet Mr. Anthony," said Gertrudis. "So! You have met before?"

"In Colon," Kirk explained, while Alfarez scorched him with his eyes. "Mr. Alfarez was very hospitable to me."

"Yes," the Spaniard exclaimed. "It is my great regret that Senor Anthony did not remain for longer. Does Senor Anthony discover our climate to be still agreeable?"

"Very. It hasn't grown too warm for me yet."

"We are but approaching our 'ot season.'" The speaker's eyes snapped.

Heretofore Kirk had hated Ramon in a careless, indifferent sort of way, feeling that he owed him a good drubbing, which he would be pleased to administer if ever a fitting time arrived. But now, since he saw that the Spaniard had the audacity to love Gertrudis, his feeling became intense. The girl, of course, was fully alive to the situation and, although she evidently enjoyed it, she did her best to stand between the two men.

As for Alfarez, he was quick to feel the sudden fierce hostility he had aroused, and it seemed to make him nervous. Moreover, he conceived that he had scored heavily by his last retort, at which Kirk had only smiled. It therefore seemed best to him to withdraw from the conversation (annoyingly conducted in English), and a few moments later he stalked majestically away. This was just what Kirk wanted, and he quickly suggested the balcony. But Gertrudis was obstinate.

"I must remain with my father," she said.

"May I sit beside you, then? Do you know, I'm going to nestle up to your father and make him like me."

"Again you are speaking of that subject. I have known you but an hour, and you talk of nothing but my father, of me, of coming to call. I have lost all modesty to speak of those things. You force me to embarrass myself."

"You once spoke of a chap your people had picked out. It isn't Alfarez?"

She let her dark eyes rest upon his a moment, and his senses swam. Then she nodded slowly.

"You do not like him?"

"Just like a nose bleed. The day you and I are married I'm going to send him a wreath of poison ivy."

"It pleases you always to joke."

"No joke about that. You won't give in, will you?"

"There is no question of force nor of surrender, señor. I insist now that we shall speak of other things."

A few moments later he was constrained to rejoin his hostess' party.

"When are you going back to Las Savannas?" he asked as he reluctantly arose.

"Tomorrow."

"The hunting ought to be good"—

But she frowned at him in annoyance, and he left her after all without knowing whether he had gained or lost ground. She was not so warm and impulsive as he had supposed. Her girlishness, her simplicity, her little American ways, cloaked a deep reserve and a fine sense of the difference in their positions. The plague of it was that if anything he was more in love with the definite and dazzling Gertrudis Garavel than he had been with the mysteriously alluring Chiquita. And then, too, there was Alfarez!

HOT TEA BREAKS

A COLD—TRY THIS

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Three" at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacupful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

Tango Garter.

The unlimited display of stocking in the tango has given rise to the "jeweled" garter, worn immediately below the knee, and recalling Tom Hood's "Miss Kilmansegg and Her Precious Leg," to display which necessitated a very particular type of skirt, shorter on one side than even Diana's. Those who have seen the tango danced will realize what abundant opportunity it affords for the display of stockings, even more at the back than in front. This should cause a good boom for silk stocking makers. The transparent ones are becoming more and more revealing with every week. Tango stockings are black, or otherwise dark in tint, unless worn with white or light gowns, when they accord with the tone of these or are in gold color.

WITH FUR TRIMMINGS

VELVET THE FASHIONABLE MATERIAL JUST NOW.

Combination Is Peculiarly Rich and Effective—White and Black, With a Dash of Other Color, a Feature of the Models.

By MARY DEAN.
Velvet is more than ever in evidence, and an entire costume of one of the beautiful rich colored soft French or English velvets, trimmed with fur, should make the woman who is wearing it feel as though she had a long list of aristocratic ancestors, and had sat in the lap of luxury all her days.

Tailored gowns of velvet may have either a long or a short coat. The flounced skirt is particularly modish, and suggests the charming little tunic a la minaret. The majority of the skirts are cut with godet plaits, and form real godet folds on the hips. The same effect may be noticed on the jacket.

Many fur-trimmed models in velvet are fashioned in bolero style. A high-shaped girdle of the velvet extends to just below the bust line to give the necessary warmth.

The white and black combination continues in favor, and some of the most distinctive models introduced this season are in black and white, with a mere dash of color somewhere. Drecoll is responsible for one of the prettiest of these black and white creations, which has bodice and tunic of white chiffon and trimmings of jet beads. The beads form bands for the neck, under part of the sleeves and lower part of the tunic.

The skirt is a draped model in the simplest of black velvet. The detail which gives special cachet to this frock consists of the skirt drapery, which, beginning at the right side of the skirt front between the hem and the knee, runs backward and upward over the tunic of chiffon and is fastened in a big, soft, flat bow at the left side back at the waistline. The much-needed touch of color is shown in the girdle of rose satin which encircles the waist. The neck, front and bottom of bolero are trimmed with dark fur. The tunic is also bordered with a band of the fur.

The tailored frock sketched is of a beautiful shade of rich golden brown velour de laine trimmed with fitch. The girdle is of brown velvet.

An admirable model of white duvetyne was shown in a smart shop on Fifth avenue the other day. The skirt, bodice and upper part of the peplum were of white duvetyne. To the lower part of the peplum was attached a broad border of plaited brown mousseline de sole trimmed at the bottom with a band of sable. There was a brown velvet collar with tie of the brown mousseline knotted at the front. The girdle was of the brown mousseline, tied at the back in a flat bow. The long sleeves were finished at the wrist with a double frill of brown mousseline. There was a hat to accompany the frock of brown tulle trimmed in front with a brown aigrette.

Birthday Announcements.

The etiquette of birth announcements is definite. The folded sheet of pale pink bordered note paper announcing the arrival, the date, the weight, and the name of the parents, is sent out within twenty-four hours after the birth to every immediate relative and to all intimate friends on both sides of the family. The sheet of paper exactly fits into a two by two-and-a-half-inch envelope, also narrowly color-bordered, and if the child is a boy, bearing on its flap the full coat-of-arms of its father's family. A girl's announcement cannot carry a crest, but may have the parents' initials intertwined.

GOOD HOUSES FOR CHICKENS

Leghorns Stand Cold Weather, Provided They Are Free From Dampness and Draughts.

We have one building 18x70 feet and one 18x128 feet made of matched pine, not doubled or lined, a pitch roof covered with two-ply roofing and dirt floors. Both buildings face the south and each has the south side covered with an equal amount of glass and muslin half-way from the eaves, the latter half enclosed with matched pine. These windows have been opened wide daily regardless of zero weather. Single Comb Brown Leghorns stand cold weather, provided they are free from drafts and dampness, says a writer in an exchange. Our buildings have dirt floors covered with one foot of wheat straw. The dropping boards and roosts are cleaned and disinfected with a hot spray from a force pump every two weeks. The broken straw from the floor is placed upon the dropping boards and the floor covered anew with wheat straw. The cost of the building, exclusive of land, was $3.88 per lineal foot, 70 plus 128 feet, thus housing 1,250 layers at 62 cents per hen. The usual estimate is $1 per hen.

Single-Comb Brown Leghorn.

HINTS OF DUCKS AND GEES

Duckling Should Be Marketed Before Twelve Weeks Old—Same Is Said of Geesings.

A Pekin duckling weighs about two ounces when hatched, and should take on weight as follows: Three to four weeks, one pound; six to eight weeks, four to four and one-half pounds; and at ten weeks, five and one-half to six pounds. Ducklings should be marketed at from nine to twelve weeks of age. After that they take on weight slowly, and it is not profitable to keep them longer than twelve weeks.

Geege grow about as rapidly as ducks. Allowance of course must be made for the original difference in size—newly hatched goslings weighing about four ounces. Turkeys do not grow rapidly at the start, but develop much quicker after three months of age.

POULTRY NOTES

Gees do not thrive when yarded; ducks do.

The goose like the duck, has practically no crop.

The average weight of the goose is twice that of the duck.

Geege pair, but drakes will take care of four or more mates.

A hen left to shift for herself may lay in summer but seldom will in winter.

Are you figuring on entering one or two pens in a poultry show, if not, begin now.

Before packing and shipping poultry should be thoroughly dry and cold, but not frozen.

Limberneck is caused by the fowls eating some dead animal matter that has bred maggots.

The goose is a grazing bird, while the duck thrives with a limited amount of green food.

Don't forget to sprinkle lime on drop boards, not too much, for it is hard on the chicken's feet.

Meat in some form must be fed poultry at least twice a week—also green food if you want results.

A good dry mash for layers: Two parts bran, 1 part cornmeal, 1 part alfalfa meal, and 1 part beef scrap.

Ducks can be profitably bred for four years, geese can be bred for many years—for a period that seems incredible.

Fifty hens with abundant room, care and proper feed will return more cash than one hundred carelessly fed and crowded.

Dust the hen with insect powder before setting, and twice more while hatching, then chicks will not be full of lice to begin with.

After hens have passed their period of profitable laying (two or three years), they may be sold at little if any loss on their first cost.

WHY ENDURE PIMPLES

CUTICURA Soap and Ointment

Do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little that it is almost criminal not to use them.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 23-p. book. Address "Cuticura," Dept. 415, Boston.

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Will Explore In Airship.

Designs have been drawn at Berlin for the airship which Lieut. P. Graetz intends to use in exploring the interior of New Guinea. Associations have been formed in England and Holland to furnish the sum of $750,000 which the novel plan of exploration is expected to cost. The airship designed is 320 feet long by 60 feet in diameter, capable of making a speed of 34 miles an hour and rising to the height of 12,500 feet. A portable shed for the airship and a gas-generating plant will be set up at Malu, which will be used as the base for the expedition. Surveys of the interior will be made with the help of instruments such as the aero camera and photopertograph. In the beginning, flights one day in length are to be made from the base to some point on the coast of New Guinea. After bird's-eye charts of the interior have been made, the explorations will be continued by land expeditions.

Zanzibar.

Zanzibar, now figuring as a possible pawn in an Anglo-German deal, has not come into the British empire without paying a heavy price in blood and treasure. The island of cloves was visited for the first time by the British fleet during the Napoleonic scare era, but since then we have kept the upper hand. Very uncomplimentary things have been said about the people of Zanzibar. Professor Drummond found the island in 1888, "Oriental in appearance, Mohammedan in religion, Arabian in morals—a cesspool of wickedness, fit capital for a dark continent." But the British residents appear to have a good time—big dinners, golf, tennis and cricket. The local cricket team indeed can be beaten only by the combined strength of the British fleet, "once a year, and sometimes not even then."

Umbrellas for "Cops."

In this country, says a writer in the December Wide World, the policeman generally has to take his chances with regard to the weather. He is pretty well looked after as regards wet and cold, but when it comes to hot weather he has to be content with a lighter uniform, and, perhaps, a white cap or helmet; in some places he does not even get that. In Calcutta, however, the thoughtful authorities take great care of their policemen—the native ones, at all events. Not only is the Indian "cop" provided with a cool white suit, but he has a sunshade to protect his complexion from the dazzling rays of the Indian sun as well. Nobody seems to see anything incongruous in the idea, yet if a policeman appeared on Broadway with a sunshade over his head a crowd would quickly assemble to gaze on the novel sight.

30,000 Persons Publicly Recommend Our Remedy. Some Are Dixon People.

Over one hundred thousand have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. For backache, kidney, urinary ills, Thirty thousand signed testimonials are appearing now in public print.

Some of them are Dixon people. Some are published in Dixon. No other remedy shows such proof. Follow this Dixon man's example. W. Walford, blacksmith, 843 Walnut Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: "I had quite a little trouble from my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and when I stooped, I had pain across my sides. My back often ached. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they made me well. The pains left and the action of my kidneys was regulated."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Walford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

How to Tell Perfect Diamond.

A diamond to have the maximum beauty and brilliancy must be perfect in cut and form. First the table of a diamond should be perfectly round. The table is the very top of the diamond; from it the stone spreads to the girdle, which is the point of its contact with the setting. From the girdle it diminishes underneath the setting to a point called the culet. To be perfect a stone, when an imaginary line is drawn, through it up and down should be one-third as thick above the girdle as it is below. There has been no improvement on this cutting in 30 years.

COLD WAVE GRIPS U. S.

Blizzard Followed by Drop in Temperature in Nebraska.

Coldest Weather of the Winter Hits Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 7.—The coldest weather of the winter struck Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and northern Texas. A biting north wind, with sleet, came with the cold over most of the region. Early in the day the temperature reached zero in many parts of Kansas and western Missouri and was falling. Ten degrees below zero was registered in northwestern Kansas. Wind, cold and sleet caused great suffering to live stock, which in most localities had not been fortified against a temperature from 25 to 35 degrees below that of Thursday. Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 7.—The storm which started on Thursday in western Nebraska and swept over the entire state during the night reached the proportions of a blizzard here, with the temperature at 6 below zero. Heavy snow accompanied by a high wind fell over the entire state and western Nebraska points report temperatures from 12 to 13 degrees below.

Washington, Feb. 7.—A severe cold wave overspread the central southern states and was pushing its way eastward, with indications that it would reach northwestern Florida and the easternmost of the southern states today. Chicago, Feb. 7.—A snow storm in Chicago is the forerunner of a cold wave that has gripped the northwest and is due to force the thermometer here down around the zero mark, according to the weather man's predictions.

Reports from Iowa, Washington, eastern Oregon and Idaho, as well as Montana, are that the cold wave has set some new cold marks for 1914 and is heading this way. Train service was affected by the weather and most transcontinental trains were three or four hours late.

BABY COSTS TEACHER JOB

Tribunal Rules She Should Seek Re-Instatement Through Body.

New York, Feb. 7.—The appellate division of the supreme court handed down a unanimous opinion to the effect that Mrs. Bridget C. Pelixotta cannot be reinstated to her position as teacher in a public school in the Bronx. Mrs. Pelixotta is the married woman who took a leave of absence for a year in order to give birth to a child. After the birth of her baby she endeavored to regain her position as teacher. The board of education refused to reinstate her, and she applied to Justice Seabury of the supreme court to return a writ of mandamus by ordering the board of education to reinstate her, which was done. The school authorities then appealed from the order of Justice Seabury.

FORCE IN HAITI WITHDRAWN

Only 25 Men Left to Guard the American Consulate.

Cape Haytien, Feb. 7.—When it was learned from the consular corps that no further disturbances were probable in the city, the 80 bluejackets landed from the United States gunboat Nashville on Thursday for patrol duty were recalled to their vessel. Only 25 men were left to act as a guard about the American consulate. It seemed probable at one time that the inhabitants would attack the sailors. Several houses were coated with kerosene at night by the mob, but the patrols of bluejackets prevented the buildings being ignited.

Coulon Is Going Abroad.

New York, Feb. 7.—Joe Fox, bantam weight champion of England and Ireland, has been matched to meet Johnny Coulon, bantam weight champion, at the Olympia in London next June, the bout to take place on some date between the 27th and 30th, it was announced here. The boxers are to meet at 116 pounds ringside.
